JUAREZ FAVORITES BEATEN

PUBLIC CHOICES FAIL TO WIN SINGLE RACE AT MEXICAN COURSE.

Swede Sam, Quoted at 20 to 1, Is Longest Priced Winner of Day-Salesia Makes It Four Straight -Ooma Turns Table on Little Bit.

El Paso, Tex., February 17.—The followers of public form had a disastrous day at Juarez today. Not a single layorite secred and, as a result, the bookmakers reaped a handsome profit.

The longest shot of the day to score was Swede-Sam in the third race. He was held at the liberal odds of 20 to 1. He just cantered to his opposition all the way and surprised the smart set.

The favorite of the third race, Little Marchmont, suffered from interference just after the field left the starter's hands. Being on the rail, he was crowded out of contention.

The opening race, for two-year-olds, and the first at the distance of half a mile this season, brought out eight contestants. It was a clean race, with not a hit of crowding or jostling. Ooma, Little Bit and Kilitie fought it out head and head through the final quarter and Ooma, aided by the strong finishing ability of jockey Borel, got the decision in the final stride. Little Bit displayed great gameness and Kiltie also ran a smart race.

Jockey R. Hoffman and his wife departed for New York today to spend a vacation with Hoffman's parents until the spring meeting opens at Lexington, where he will resume riding. He has improved wonderfully in his work in the saddle here this winter.

salesia, the winner of the last race, made it four straight victories. Owner Riddle was fortunate looky in escaping a run-up. Cockspur ran in nearest pursuit of the winner at all times.

Jockey Halsey was suspended for five days by starter Cassidy for disobedience at the barrier. Jockey Kirschbaum was suspended for five days by the stewards for rough riding on Prince Conrad. W. H. Fizer. Henry McDaniel, J. C. Ferris, H. S. Sewingia and J. Schreiber, who raced their horses wer far western tracks last season, are planning to race in Kentucky this year.

The Juarez track was in fairly good condition this morning, when the following work-outs took place, most of them close to the inner rail, where the going was best:

THIRTY LEADING AMERICAN JOCKEYS

Its a close thing for the saddle honors of 1913 to date. Gross is leading by the narrow margin of date. Gross is leading by the narrow margin of one winning mount over R. Hoffman and Kederis, and Jare tied for second place. The latter is riding at Jarez in greatly improved form. Then come J. Robbins, an apprentice; Euxton and Burtingame. The records of the thirty leaders from January 1 is and including the racing of Sunday last is as followed.

PALMETTO PARK RACING IS CLEAN.

Officials Active in Keeping Meeting from Scandal- Racing Associations in Dominion Making Ambition Derby Eligibles and Other Gossip.

Derby Eligibles and Other Gossip.

Charleston, S. C., February 17.—Whaftever other drawbacks the Palmetto Park meeting may have, one cannot find fault with the racing. Keen contests have been the order ever since the meeting opened and a majority of the races have furnished spirited finishes. The sport has been clean and particularly free from scandal. It is no uncommon sight to find three or four horses fighting it out all through the the honestretch, and in thirty-eight of the ficst eighty-four races run driving finishes were recorded. In twenty-five of them noses, heads or necks separated the first two and in some it was hard to say which had won until the official blacing was displayed. During this period thirty-six favorites came down in front and also several second choices. The officials have been exceedingly active, the stewards being alive to their duties and the starter particularly successful in sending the fields away well. Of the two-year-olds shown, nothing above the ordinary has been developed. J. L. Holland probably has the best lot, Gore being especially fancted by some good jadges. Please Welles is speedy but small. She lacks size and it is doubtful if she will amount to mach when the youngsters are asked to go longer distances. She is a wiry little thing, however, and a quick breaker. Frank Brown is training his Ultimus—Stepping Stone colt. He has named this fellow Brownstone. On looks, Brownstone overshadows every two-year-old at Palmetto Park. He has size, quality and conformation and if he is not a first class race horse many shrewd trainers will be disappointed.

With the heavy rains of the last few days has come an improvement in the going and when it dries out thoroughly the footing should be firm and springy. There is no reason why the track at Palmetto Park should not be one of the fastest in the country. It is built on meason what he track at Palmetto Park should not be one of the fast few days has come an improvement in the going and when it dries out thoroughly has observed to the

When jockey Jimmy Butwell tted himself up with Ral Parr for the coming season, it left the Harry Payne Whitney stable without a rider. Good lads are none too plentiful in these times and Albert Simons and James Rowe had to look about for some one to take Butwell's place. They landed on Roscoe Troxler and the latter will ride in the Whitney colors in America and Canada this year. It is presumed that Mr. Stmons will go back to Canada, although he left that circuit when the Havre de Grace meeting opened last summer. Troxler is a good twoyear-old rider and, as a majority, or in fact all, of the Whitney string will be composed of young incers, he should fill fibe bill. Guy Burns, who rode for Mr. Simons for several years, will go from here to Louisville with Frank E. Brown. It is said that James Rowe has planned to send Ambrose to Jack Joyner to ride for the division of the Whitney stable that is being raced in England. It is probably just as well that Ambrose is going abroad, for the lad developed a habit of getting into troable quite frequently last season.

With the running of the Palmetto Derby only six weeks off horsemen and race goers are already beginning to look about for the prospective winner of the feature race of the meeting. The Palmetto Derby, will be the first of the important three-yearold races of the year and in the list of seventeen eligibles there are some of real merit. The bick of these have not as yet been seen in public during the meeting. It has been said that C. F. Buscheneyer contemplates sending Hawthorn serial during the meeting. It has been said that C. F. Buscheneyer cordemplates sending Hawthorn's Palmetto engagement would serve as a try-out for the Kentucky Derby,
It is doubtful, however, if Hawthorn is shipped here, according to late advices. Apart from Hawthorn, the list of most promising eligibles is made up of

CANADIAN STAKES TO BE INCREASED.

Preparations for Approaching Season.

Charleston, S. C., February 17.—The racing associations in Canada are making preparations for their meetings the coming summer. News from the Dominion is to the effect that the coming season will find increased purse and stake values, the overnight purses ranging from $600 upward, while the fixed events will be materially increased in value. The Ontario Jockey Club, which always has been liberal to the horsemen, will have a number of valuable stakes, the entrance and starting fees to which will be placed at a nominal figure. In other words, it will cost horsemen only $5 to enter and $15 additional to start in the Toronto Cup, to which will be placed at a nominal figure. In other words, it will cost horsemen only $5 to enter and $15 additional to start in the Toronto Cup, to which $5,000 will be added. Windsor will increase the value of the Frontier Stakes to $3,500, and the Belle Isle to $2,500. In fact, all the stakes will have greater values than ever before. Walter 0. Farmer has announced that he will add a valuable piece of plate to the Edenwold Stakes, named for his farm in Tennessee. This event is for two-year-olds. The inaugural meeting of the new track at Ottawa will be held in June and the management is already making preparations to give the meeting a great send-off. Rumor has it that Alie Louden, general manager and racing secretary of the Hamilton Jockey Club, will serve in a similar capacity for the Connaught Park Jockey Club. This would mean that practically the same efficient staff of officials will be 21 Ottawa as at Hamilton. As yet no announcement has been made by the new club as to what stakes will be run at its meeting, but it is presumed that they will be in keeping with those offered by the other clubs on the circuit.

With the report that racing is to be resumed on some of the metropolitan tracks this senson comes the news that A. B. Dade, who has served as starter at all of the Canadian Racing Association tracks for several years past, may officiate on the Jockey Club tracks in New York.

THREE JOCKEY LICENSES WITHHELD.

New York, February 17.—The applications of jock cys Charles ("Skeeis") Garner, Eddie Taplin and Charles Vandusen for licenses to ride during the season of 1913 have been held up by the stewards of the Jockey Club. These rulings were made at a meeting when many applications were before the governing body for action. A few seasons back Garner was one of the best lightweights in the country and for a time he rode in France. He fill into evil ways, was ruled off some seasons back, and for a time contented himself with riding about the "bush" meetings. He is now at Charleston.

The name of McTaggart, who was held responsible for the fatal injuries to the good colt Worth at Pimlico last fall, by reason of his rough riding, does not appear among those whose applications were acted upon favorably. At a previous meeting of the stewards his application was laid on the table.

The meeting at which this action was taken was presided over by August Belmont, and those present were H. K. Knapp, Andrew Miller and Schuyler I. Parsons. The trainers who were granted licenses include:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jack Sturgis is reported $10,000 loser in his carez operations.

Jockey J. Deavenport, who is convalescing at Juarez from an attack of typhoid fever, will not re-sume riding until the Kentucky circuit opens. Jockey Denny, who was ruled off at Juarez last winter for an unsatisfactory ride on Pride of Lis-more, is seeking reinstatement at Judge Price's hands at Juarez.

The standing of the leading jockeys of the Juarez meeting from its opening to date is as follows: Gross, 41 winning mounts; Burlingame, 26: Loftus, 25; Hill, 24; B. Steele, 22; Robbins, 21; R. Hoffman,

The Public Morals Committee of the Montana Legislature has reported adversely on a bill to prohibit race-track betting in Montana. A bill under which the Butte meeting could not extend over more than ten days in each year is still in committee and is unlikely to pass, according to report.

Frank D. Weir is reported to have paid John E. Madden $450 for Old Rosebud, with which he won the Yucatan Stakes at Juarez recently. Old Rosebud and his two-year-old stable companions in the Weir string that have raced so well at Juarez will be liberally nominated for the juvenile stakes to be run in Kentucky.

FRANK BROWN'S HORSE BEATS FLORA FINA BY A NARROW MARGIN.

J. E. Madden's Bernadotte, Heavily Backed to Win Maiden Race, Is Beaten by Frank Hudson-Samuel R. Meyer Again Shows Good Form,

Charleston, S. C., February 17.—The footing at Palmetto Park this afternoon was firm and solid and the going was greatly improved as compared with Saturday. Mediocre fields went to the post in a majority of the races, but stirring contests resulted, two of the winners being first home by small margins. The fourth race, a dash of one mile, which was meant as the feature, furnished an interesting contest in which Merry Lad, the favorite, beat Floca Fina a head after a long and hard stretch drive. Guy Burns, who has had little opportunity of late, showed to good advantage on the winner. His rousing drive was chiefly responsible for victory and when it came to the finish he outdid Buxton. Burns, by the way, has signed up with Frank Brown for the Kentucky season and will accompany the stable from here to Lonisville at the conclusion of the Palmetto-Park meeting.

Palmetto-Park meeting.

J. E. Madden's Bernadotte was the medium of heavy support in the opener, a dash of six furlongs for maidens. This is the colt that C. T. Patterson is pointing for the Palmetto Derby. Bernadotte ran a promising good race, although be failed to win. E. Martin, who is not much of a rider on a big sluggish horse, appeared unable to do Bernadotte justice, being unequal to the task of keeping the colt up in the early stages. He closed fast and at the finish was going much faster than Frank Hutson, the winner, which got a hustling ride from young Skirvin.

Samuel R. Meyer, after making all of his own pace, beat Sir Blaise a neck in the second. The former is a much improved horse and it looks is if he will change hands within the next few days, as several would-be purchasers are after him. Lord Wells' victory in the fifth was a fluke. Gold Cap, the favorite, suffered from repeated interference. He came from fifth place in the last sixteenth and at the fluish was running much faster than the winner.

Mrs. L. A. Livingston was an arrival here this morning. Mrs. Livingston has about a dozen horses at Palmetto Park, one of which is Talecarrier, an eligible for the Palmetto Derby. The latter is being prepared for this race by William Hayward, Jr., who is in charge of the Livingston horses here.

Jack McCormack, trainer for Francis J. Pons, was taken sick this morning with an attack of gastritis. W. R. Sallee will look after the Pons horses during Mr. McCormack's indisposition. Fred Schelke, trainer for J. W. Hedrick, was also taken sick this morning. His ailment was an attack of ptomaine poisoning and he was removed to St. Francis' Hospital.

George P. Eustis has received permission from the Jockey Club to change the name of the horse Winbert to Col. Robert Neville. The latter is carded as a starter in the first race tomorrow.

Jockey J. McIntyre has severed his connection with the Talbott stable and will ride as a free lance during the remainder of the meeting.

Gene Russell purchased the filly Miss Nett this morning from E. L. Webb.

The service sent out from Palmetto Park by the International News Bureau was suspended this after.

The service sent out from Palmetto Park by the International News Bureau was suspended this afternoon and all newspaper reports were held up for fifteen minutes. The management is determined to prevent information going out to poolrooms or hand-books.

PROGRESS ON COLORADO LEGISLATION.

The bill to provide for the appointment of a racing commission in Colorado, with the pari-mutuel form of betting authorized, has been reported back to the senate at Denver without recommendation, which same course was followed with numerous other bills. It is expected that the matter will come to a vote in the senate before long.

HARMONICON AN IMPROVED COLT.

HARMONICON AN IMPROVED COLT.

As in this country, mild weather has prevailed through the winter in England, one result being that trainers have been able to give their horses an annusual amount of exercise. Unless there is a change to more rigorous conditions it is anticipated that the opening of the flat racing season, March 24, will therefore find them quite forward in condition and with more than the ordinary contingent ready to race. Among the horses doing well are H. P. Whiting's at Newmarket, and concerning them and some others "Warren Hill" said in Sporting Life of February 5:

"All Joyner's elder horses went six furlongs at a good pace, and we had a capital view at close quarters as they walked off home. Of the three-year-olds Harmonicon seems to have grown and doubest, and I should not be at all surprised if as a three-year-old he is quite a class ahead of the rest of his stable companions.

"Meeting House has not lengthened out at all, but Miramichi has done well, and in appearance comes next to Harmonicon. The City and Suburban candidate, Cabaret, has let down and has lost much of his leggy appearance. Of the fillies, Fly by Night has done well, and so has the Hamburg Belle filly; but of all the three-year-olds Harmonicon is most like doing anything great.

"Watson's team did nothing more than cantering exercise, and it does not look as though early training would be attempted this year. Tracery appears to have grown as much as a three-year-old, and it was very gratifying to see that Day Comet had grown the right way. Corso is a good-looking horse that has done well, but the forejoints of the brother to Pietri, Magnilieo, will, I fear, always prove a bar to his being properly trained.
"Lastly we have the smart little team presided over by Pawson Waugh, and there is no mistake about Louvois being a gentleman this year. He will be quite a nice-sized horse, with his quarters well muscled up, and his legginess of last season rapidly disappearing. He moves with more life, too, in all his paces, as if he h

LAWTON WIGGINS was saved under restraint for a half mile and, responding well when called on in the homestretch, wore the leaders down and drew away in the last eighth.
